Nearly all ballots have been counted for the November 3, 2020 General Election

Salinas — As of the latest results report on Tuesday, November 17, 2020, Monterey County Elections is in the final stretch of the canvass period. With nearly all votes counted, Registrar of Voters Claudio Valenzuela stated, “My intention is to certify the results of the General Election by Monday, November 23rd”.

The deadline to receive vote by mail ballots that have been postmarked by Election Day is Friday, November 20, 2020. This is also the deadline for voters to “cure” their signatures. Voters who have mismatched or missing signatures have been contacted by the Elections Department. These voters may return the requested information to the Elections Department by email, mail, fax or in person.
